

Senior Actuary – Workers Compensation (Sydney)

Taylor Fry are seeking a qualified Senior Actuary with workers compensation experience for a newly created role in our Injury Schemes team.

The opportunity

It is an exciting time for Taylor Fry, our business is expanding, and we need to invest in recruitment to support this growth. Our Injury Schemes team has identified a need for a new Senior Actuary who has solid experience in general insurance with an emphasis on workers compensation.

We are seeking a motivated character: a person who can see opportunity, loves to innovate and is eager to support future business growth. In this role, you will be required to scope and lead projects, to assist with the management and development of junior team members and will also be heavily involved in business development and client management. In return for your commitment, we can offer you a supportive and collegiate environment where your contribution is valued, the opportunity to make your own mark and genuine career progression.

The injury schemes practice offers client-focussed solutions to governments and self-insurers across Australia and New Zealand, catering to a range of demands, from conventional liability valuations to full-service offerings. As a senior member of the Injury Schemes team, you can expect to support projects such as scheme design and reform analysis, claims triage, claim pathways analysis, valuations, pricing and portfolio monitoring, and other services that give schemes and large self-insurers insights into scheme dynamics.

What's our edge?

- » Hierarchy, what hierarchy? Collaboration is our ethos, we encourage discussion and team work at all levels within the business and ensure everyone has access to senior staff and senior stakeholders.
- » We offer competitive remuneration packages, including profit share based on company performance and the potential for equity ownership.
- » We maintain a positive environment that supports mental wellness and work/life balance, embrace a flexible working culture (both hours and location) and have created a relaxed office environment with a casual dress code.

About the firm
